

I do not think that the FCC should support any act that will weaken the already instated Wisconsin "no-call" laws.
I do not believe that anyone has the right interrupt my daily activities by ringing the telephone in my home after I've told them not to.

Thank you.
Erik Bloohm